Culture

" Elba wild and untouched, super equipped and cutting-edge ... In any case, waiting to be discovered. The opportunity to experience the sea along the more than 147 kilometres of coastline are many, each with its morphology and its character: long beaches of golden sand, tiny pebble coves, beaches of black sand, white pebbles, more impressive cliffs of granite and basalts. Impossible not to find one that will get your heart racing. Far from the world, walking distance to everything. The total contact with nature and the silence, the simplicity of a backpacker and discovering hidden and exclusive glimpses, imagining being one of the first explorers as a Scout on the island. Here you will be still possible, never travel far from convenience. Hidden coves, nesting seabirds and fish can be seen already from the rocks. Many sporting activities, above and below the surface. From sailing to kayaking, from snorkeling to the brand new SUP (variant of surf where you are standing on the table), the sea of Elba offers the possibility to take part in any aquatic sport, whether of sea dogs, whether types from the Mainland. "
